

Questions for your HealthCare Team

- Is my child's growth on track (weight and height)?
- How do I know if my child is still on the right formula?
- My child appears to be underweight. What should I do?
- My child appears to be overweight. What should I do?
- Why does my child need extra calories?
- Why does my child need extra protein?
- How can I tell if my child is getting all the vitamins and minerals he or she needs?
- What should I do if my child is vomiting every day?
- What should I do if my child is irritable or uncomfortable after feeds?
- Could this be a sign of feeding intolerance?
- What should I do if my child looks bloated after feeds?
- What should I do if my child frequently has diarrhea?
- What should I do if my child frequently is constipated?
- How will I know if I should change my child's feeding schedule?
- How can I tell if my child is not tolerating the formula?
- How can I tell if my child has a food allergy?
- How and when should my child's bone density be evaluated?
- Why are bolus feeds recommended for my child?
- Why is a continuous feed recommended for my child?
- Where can I find more information about feeding pumps?
- Is a blenderized formula suitable for my child?
- Can my child still drink and/or eat by mouth?
- How can I make tube-feeding easier for my child and our family?
- Tube weaning: How will I know when it's time?
- Other questions: _____

Our next appointment is scheduled for: _____

myTubefeedingkid
Education & Resources for Your Child's Journey

Important reminder: Please consult your child's healthcare team with any questions about your child's home tube-feeding plan.

If you have any questions about MyTubeFeedingKid or resource materials, please contact Nestlé HealthCare Nutrition at 1-800-315-9795.

© Nestlé 2016. All trademarks are owned by Société des Produits Nestlé S.A., Vevey, Switzerland.